

Enrolment for the tailor-made courses for lawyers and/or legal secretaries (the tailor-made course Legal English for Lawyers and/or Legal Secretaries and the tailor-made course Legal English for Civil-Law Notaries)

Since the programme of these tailor-made courses and the frequency of the sessions are determined in consultation with the client, enrolment for a tailor-made course can easily be done by means of an e-mail confirmation.

If desired, an appointment can be made for a personal introduction interview. The written version of a course can be started at any time.
