

Where and When Legal English Tailor-made Course

The Legal English Tailor-made Course

Naturally, the programme and the frequency of the sessions of tailor-made courses will be determined in consultation. In addition, the dates and times at which and the location where the regular tailor-made course takes place are determined in consultation with the client.

Those who are interested in a tailor-made course, are, therefore, advised to contact us by telephone or email. The tailor-made courses are held, as a general rule, at the location of the client, but can also be held at the location in Amsterdam-IJburg.

The written Legal English tailor-made course

In case of the written tailor-made course, the participant sends in the assignments per email. In the next week these are returned, provided with comments and suggestions. Any additional questions can also be asked by email. The assignments and the other course materials are sent to the distance student by email.
